CODE OF BEHAVIOR

All campers are expected to behave as true martial artists, by observing and exemplifying our Tenets and Philosophies (Modesty, Perseverance, Self Control, Indomitable Spirit, Etiquette, Respect, Humility and Patience). Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and will be addressed immediately. The camp directors have the right to evaluate and act upon any behavior that disrupts the camp or threatens or causes harm to other campers, coaches, team leaders or camp staff. Some specific items that will not be tolerated and may result in a camper being asked to leave the camp are: insubordination of camp staff, team leaders or coaches, lack of respect for personal property of others, camp equipment or camp facilities, and any other action that causes or threatens to cause harm to any person or thing associated with this camp.

Above all we hope to make this camp a fun and enriching experience for everyone who participates. We will provide great instruction in a welcoming environment that will benefit all. We expect that this will be a camp not only to glean knowledge from but also to develop long lasting bonds with fellow Taekwondo practitioners.
